

From pilot statistic to cosmological residual: measured terms and model gates

The current scalar-proxy calculation is a conservative screening result, not a visibility-domain proof.

Closing tests: full-allocation spectra; contaminated visibilities before/after $m = 0$ subtraction; alternative residual shapes; combined-bin Fisher estimator.